The Community

Fuquay-Varina is located in Southern Wake County, approximately 18 miles south of Raleigh, North Carolina. Wake County is one of the state's fastest growing areas, with a student population of over 133,700, attending more than 140 public schools. The town of Fuquay-Varina houses over 14,000 residents which is economically and ethnically diverse.

The School

Fuquay-Varina High School is a comprehensive 4-year high school enrolling 2,030 students in grades nine through twelve. The academic program is organized on a block schedule, where the maximum load is 4 credits per semester. Our high school has gained accreditation from the North Carolina State Board of Education and the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools. FVHS is a "Safe Schools Award" recipient, and has achieved "high growth" in the state ABC evaluations the past two years.
